

Sept. 2008

Ocracoke fisherman Gene Ballance (right) accepts a donated quilt on behalf of the Ocracoke Working Watermen's Association. The salt-water-inspired quilt features patchwork, appliqué and embroidery. It was handmade by the Ocracoke Needle and Thread Club to be used as a fundraiser for the non-profit OWWA. Quilters Cindy Hitchens (center) and Rosemary Wetherill worked on finishing the binding during the Art Walk.

